NUMB. 41.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, NOVEMBER 2, to Saturday, NOVEMBER 9. 1734.

From the Daily Advertiſer, Auguſt 21.

Naples, Auguſt 8.

ON the 2d Inſtant the Garriſon of Gaeta made a Sally upon the Beſiegers, but were repuls'd, with the Loſs of 100 Men. On the 3d their Fire was leſs briſk than on the former Day; but on the 4th it ſlacken'd prodigiouſly. The next Day, the 5th, the Enemy left off firing: and the Governor, unable longer to reſiſt the Troops who were on the Point of making a Breach, demanded on the 6th to capitulate, to prevent expoſing the Town to the Conſequence of an Aſſault Sword in Hand. His Majeſty would not conſent to give this Place better Terms than the others had which his Troops before reduc'd; accordingly the Governor with his Garriſon, conſiſting of 1500 Men, are made Priſoners of War. There was found in the Town 100 Pieces of Cannon, and large Quantities of Ammunition and Proviſion.

The ſame Day that Gaeta ſurrender'd, his Majeſty receiv'd News of the Reduction of Peſcara and Gallipola; the Garriſons of which Places, after a long Reſiſtance were made Priſoners of War as the reſt had been. There was 50 Pieces of Ordnance found in Peſcara. Capua holds out ſtill; but 'tis confirm'd by all Hands, that the Garriſon and Inhabitants are both diſtreſs'd by Famine and Sickneſs; notwithſtanding which the Governor declares he will ſuſtain a Siege in Form before he capitulates. We hope however to bring him to ſubmit by continuing the Blockade. The Expedition to Sicily is talk'd of warmer than ever.

Paris, Auguſt 28. They write from the Army on the Rhine, that the late March of the Marſhal d'Aſfeldt towards Mentz was with a double view, as firſt to raiſe Contributions in that Electorate, and next to get ſtart of the Imperial Army by ſending Prince Eugene on a wrong Scent, in both of which he ſucceeded. Marſhal d'Aſfeldt has detach'd the Marſhal de Noailles croſs the Rhine with 30000 Men, and went himſelf to Fort Lewis, having paſs'd the River at Philipsburg. The Fatigues that the Imperial Army underwent on its March back to Heidelberg, is not to be deſcrib'd; Prince Eugene apprehending that our Generals deſign'd to poſſeſs themſelves of the important Poſt of Heilbron, and to penetrate afterwards into Bavaria, puſh'd his Troops on for four Days together without either Bread or Forage; the conſequence of which was, that the Cavalry is entirely ſpoilt: But as we had no Deſigns of the kind he fear'd, we have left him the Poſt, and the Marſhal de Noailles has carried his Troops into the Dutchy of Wirtemberg, to exact the Contributions which the Inhabitants agreed to pay before the Arrival of the Imperial Army, but refus'd afterwards. The main Body of the French Army is at preſent encamp'd in a large Plain on the other ſide Philipsburg: we cannot directly tell the General's Intentions, but 'tis believ'd that upon the Return of the Marſhal de Noailles, the Siege of ſome Place will be undertaken upon the Upper Rhine.

LONDON, Aug. 23.

On Wedneſday Morning laſt his Excellency the Count de Montijo, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, receiv'd an extraordinary Courier from the Court of Spain, and had no ſooner read the Diſpatches but he repair'd to Sir Robert Walpole and the other Miniſters of State, to hold a Conference thereupon, and his Excellency renew'd the ſame Yeſterday Morning.

We hear that theſe Diſpatches tend to the Accommodation of the preſent Differences in Europe.

Yeſterday a General Council was held at Kenſington, on Affairs of Importance.

Leghorn, Auguſt 6. We learn by a French Tartane lately arriv'd from Spain, that twenty Tranſport Ships were lading at Barcelona with Powder and Ball; that two Bomb Ships lay ready there to put to Sea, and that they waited the Arrival of ſome Men of War to accompany them towards Italy. Yeſterday paſs'd here a Spaniſh Courier going to Naples, who confirms the former Advices, and adds, that a large Body of Foot was embarking at Alicant, deſign'd, as given out, for the Expedition to Sicily. The combin'd Fleets of France and Spain were expected at Alicant, to convoy the Troops to Italy: 'Tis aſſur'd their ſole View is to prevent any Interruption to the Conqueſt of Sicily by foreign Succours.

Genoa, Auguſt 7. Upon repeated Advice that a large Galliot, carrying Imperial Colours, had done conſiderable Damage upon the Spaniſh Coaſt, and had taken, amongſt other Ships, a French Tartane with 50000 Crowns on board, the Inhabitants of the Iſland of the Majorca have arm'd out three Brigantines, in hopes to meet with it. Theſe Ships have had the good Fortune ſince they have been cruizing for the Imperialiſts, to take an Algerine Galliot carrying 20 Men.

Paris, Auguſt 31. They write from Naples of the 12th Inſtant, that upon the Capitulation of Gaeta, the King went thither from the Camp, and took a View of the Fortifications; that his Majeſty afterwards ſet out on his Return to Naples, and was receiv'd there with univerſal Acclamations; and that great Preparations were making for the Expedition to Sicily.

Letters from Genoa of the 18th adviſe, that a Courier had paſs'd through that City in his Way from Naples to Madrid, carrying the News that the Garriſon of Capua being in want of all Neceſſaries, had made a Sally upon the Beſiegers with 2500 Men, but that the Spaniards beat them, and drove them back to the Town with ſuch Precipitation, that both Parties enter'd promiſcuouſly; that the Germans however found Means to retire to the Caſtle, but having no Proviſions with them, were oblig'd the next Day to ſurrender themſelves Priſoners of War.

Extract of a Letter from Paris Aug. 31.

"Our Letters from Italy mention a Hero there whoſe "Actions have already made immortal. The young Che- "valier de St. George has acquir'd the whole Art Military "in a Campain of five Days; he is become a conſumate "General. He was continually in the Trenches before "Gaeta, ——— after the Enemy had ceas'd firing; and "himſelf in Perſon enter'd the Breach which the Spaniſh "had made, ——— but indeed the Garriſon had firſt "capitulated. In ſhort, his Genius and Accompliſhments "are extraordinary, as are likewiſe his Virtues: He has "already as much Piety as is neceſſary for a Pope, and as "much Courage and Conduct as the Chevalier!"

South-Carolina,

By his Excellency ROBERT JOHNSON Esq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have received Letters from the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, that Complaint has been made to their Lordships that there has been several Tracts of Land surveyed for People in this Province, within six Miles of the Township of Purrysburgh, in Violation of his Majesty's Royal Instructions to me, and my Proclamation pursuant thereunto.

I HAVE therefore THOUGHT FIT to reissue this my Proclamation, strictly prohibiting and forbidding all persons whatsoever, Inhabiting or Residing in this his Majesty's Province, to run out or take up any Lands within six Miles of the said Township of Purrysburgh, or of any of the Townships already run out in the said Province, as they shall answer the contrary at their Peril.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of this his Majesty's Province at Charles-Town this Sixth Day of November, in the Eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Annoq; Domini 1734.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

ROBERT JOHNSON.

By his Excellency's Command
JAMES MICHIE, Dep. Secr.

Mr. Timothy,

IT's very surprising to me (who am a stranger) that I have not met a man since this melancholy accident happened to Capt. Gordon but what is a Lawyer! Indeed I have seen some, that I much question whether they could write or read, who have told me what the Law is in this case more readily, and I am sure with much more confidence than the ablest Lawyer in England would pretend to do.

Nay, I heard a Blackamore openly in the street say, 'That an Officer may break open a House by night or day, 'and as long as he has a good Warrant, may lawfully kill 'any body in his own defence." And just after a greasy Fellow with a leathern apron (who differ'd in opinion with the black Counsellor learned in the Law abovementioned) was with the greatest vehemence affirming to a crowd that stood round him, 'That my house is my castle, and so is 'my ship, and therefore (says he) I lay it down as a fun-'damental Law of Nations, that if the greatest Officer the 'King has, was to come with a thousand Warrants against 'me for any crime whatever, if he offers to take me out 'of my castle, I can kill him, and the Law will bear me 'out." This was reply'd to by a Lawyer too, with a 'Hold there, I can't be altogether of your opinion neither, 'and I'll give you for reason, I have known the Shreeve in 'England make a Posse of a whole county, and broke o-'pen a man's house, who had withstood Authority, and 'to be sure it's a good thing to keep up Authority: But 'then (continued he) a Posse of a County do always subsist 'of such men as you and I Neighbour, sober, discreet men 'who know the Law, and not of Sailors, who you see are 'hot-headed and have kill'd a man for only attempting to 'sink their boat and set 'em all a swimming. Therefore 'its my humble opinion, if it had been a Posse it coud have 'done no harm, but since they belong to the Man of War, 'hang 'em all in Gods name.

I have heard nothing said on either side the Question in that Affair but what is full as ridiculous as this I have related, therefore I desire you to print this, which is intended to advise these ignorant Disputants to mind their own business in their respective Occupations, and leave such weighty matters as these to the decision of those whose business it is to determine them.

P. S. I shew'd this to a Friend, who inform'd me there is a Black man in this Town, who is called Lawyer (from his constant attendance on the Courts) perhaps he was the person above mentioned, if so, I beg his pardon, because he (in all probability) may have a better guess at the matter in Dispute than any of the rest.
